Well I woke up wondering where I sat just like I always do

I-80 up ahead laid out like a lazy bitch on a Sunday afternoon

We re 30 miles from Cleveland, ain t stopping, ain t even passing through
G C D G C D
At night we ll stop in Pittsburgh but Philly s where we re going to
G C D G C D
I talked to my mom today, she seems like she s doing fine now
G C D G C D
Tell her I d been getting sick again, we both pretend we don t know why
C D
She says one more drop of rain ...she swears we ll all be drowned alive
G C D G C D
And she asked me how my father s been, we both pretend we don t know why
G C D G C D
I got a friend upstate, he s got a place where I can get away from it all
G C D G
Ah but I don t know if I can take it boys, I just can t stand myself alone
C D
Well now 30 years of running s left me standing with my back to the cold
G C D
And it s left me most days wondering if I ve ever really learned a thing at G C D
all

C G
But I m trying to move on, I m trying to move on
C D
Trying to move on, I m trying to move on

G C D G C D
Maybe I should go back, back to the night where it all began
G C D G C D
Maybe I should trace my life back to the night where my folks first met
C
Maybe I could find the moment where my father broke my mother s heart in D half

G C D G
Oh I could go back to New York City, just learn to live with that baby...
C G
But I m trying to move on, I m trying to move on baby
C D G
I m trying to move on, I m trying to move on oh....
