

Pageant Material

Kacey Musgraves

G

There s certain things you re s posed to know

Am

When you re a girl who grows up in the south

G

I try to use my common sense,

Am

But my foot always ends up in my mouth

C

And if I had to walk a runway in high heels in front of the whole town

Bm

I d fall down

C

D

And my mama cried when she realized

G

I ain t pageant material

Em

I m always higher than my hair

C

And it ain t that I don t care about world peace

D

But I don t see how I can fix it in a swimsuit on a stage

G

I ain t exactly Ms. Congenial

Em

Sometimes I talk before I think, I try to fake it but I can t

Am

C

D

G

I d rather lose for what I am than win for what I ain t

(A)

God bless the girls who smile and hug

Am

When they re called out as a runner up on TV

G

I wish I could, but I just can t

Am

Wear a smile when a smile ain t what I m feelin

C

And who s to say I m a 9.5, or a 4.0

Bm

If you don t even know me

C

D

Life ain t always roses and pantyhose and

G

I ain t pageant material

Em

I m always higher than my hair

C

And it ain t that I don t care about world peace

D

But I don t see how I can fix it in a swimsuit on a stage

G

I ain t exactly Ms. Congenial

Em

Sometimes I talk before I think, I try to fake it but I can t

Am

C

D

G

I d rather lose for what I am than win for what I ain t

Em C D

G

I ain t pageant material

Em

The only crown is in my glass

C

They won t be handin me a sash, and that s okay, cause there s no way

D

You ll ever see me in a swimsuit on a stage

G

I ain t exactly Ms. Congenial

Em

Sometimes I talk before I think, I try to fake it but I can t

Am

C

D

G

I d rather lose for what I am than win for what I ain t

Am

C

D

G

Yeah I d rather lose for what I am than win for what I ain t

Em C D G Em C D G