Somebody To Love Kacey Musgraves

We re all hope, we re all hopeless,

We re all thorns and we re all roses

We re all looking down our noses at ourselves

We re all flawed and we re all perfect,

Bm

We re all lost and we re all hurting

And just searching looking for somebody to love

We re all liars, we re all legends,

We re all ten s at one eleventh,

We re all trying to get to heaven but not today,

We re all happy, we re hating,

We re all patiently impatient

And just looking for somebody to love

C

We re all good but we ain t angles,

We all sin but we ain t devils,

Bm

We re all pots and we re all kettles

Em

But we can t see it in ourselves,

We re all living till we re dying,

We ain t cool but man we re trying,

Thinking we ll be fixed by someone else

We all wrangle with religion,

We all talk but we don t listen,

G

We re all starving for attention in the run,
We re all paper, we re all scissors,
We re all fighting with our mirrors,
Scared we ll never find somebody to love

We re all good but we ain t angles,
We all sin but we ain t devils,

But we can t see it in ourselves,
We re all living till we re dying,
We ain t cool but man we re trying,
Thinking we ll be fixed by someone else
Just tryin to hold it all together,
We all wish our best was better,
Hoping that forever is really real,

Miss a dime to grab a nickel,
Overcomplicate the simple
