

Theres A Person There
Kacey Musgraves

(G) She walks around the block with a silver plated cutter on her shoulder (Cadd9) to chase the wolves off when they come. She d rather fight (C) than run, so just be aware. (G) Everybody thinks she s crazy. I think maybe she just needs a (Cadd9) patient ear to listen to her stories, let her know somebody cares (C) and there s a person there. (G)

(Em7) I gave her a pair of shoes for (C) Christmas. (Em7) She looked up and smiled and said (D) somebody must ve listened.

(G) I got shoes on. My (C) feet are off the (D) ground. Thank you (G) Jesus, this old (C) world won t get me (D) down. As (Em7) long as I got (D) prayers to pay and (Cadd9) bills to pay and (G) I m still breathin (C) air and there s a person there.

(G) Last one she told me she was all down on her luck when the (Cadd9) landlord wanted her to kill her ex for a little money and a (C) truck. Mmm, but I ain t scared. (G) Layin in my bed I hear the water run, the ceiling creak, (Cadd9) I don t think she ever sleeps. But I love to hear those (C) feet upstairs cause there s a person there. (G)

(Em7) Who knows? Maybe I m a litte (C) crazy too. But (Em7) crazy people always seem to (D) pull each other through.

(G) I got shoes on. My (C) feet are off the (D) ground. Thank you (G) Jesus, this old (C) world won t get me (D) down. As (Em7) long as I got (D) prayers to pay and (Cadd9) bills to pay and (G) I m still breathin (C) air and I know there s a person there.

(G) Her name s Sophia but she makes me call her mama and I don t (Cadd9) mind cause my family s far away. It s nice sometimes, when (C) life ain t fair, to know there s a person there. (G)
