

Forgetting Is The Hardest Part

Kane Brown

[Verse 1:]

C G
There s no doubt it was always you
D/F# Em
From that first time I walked you home from school
C G
Until you stole my heart underneath that August moon
D/F# Em
It was always you, it was always you
C G
Now it hurts to see your pretty smile fade
D/F# Em
I ve got a front row seat to watch you drift away
C G
And I know there s nothing left for us to say
D/F# C
But it s okay it s okay

[Chorus:]

C
There s no getting over you
D
I tried to sugarcoat the truth
Em D/F# C
But the missing you is tearing me apart
C
Every kiss that I let slip away
D
Every minute every single day
Em D/F# C
The memories make it easy to break a heart
D C
But forgetting, forgetting is the hardest part

[Break:]

C G C G

[Verse 2:]

C G
Sometimes I sit here feeling like a ghost
D/F# Em
Its that emptiness I think that hurts the most
C G
But a piece of me still holds a little hope
D/F# C
I should just let go but I can t let go

[Chorus:]

C

There s no getting over you

D

I tried to sugarcoat the truth

Em

D/F#

C

But the missing you is tearing me apart

C

Every kiss that I let slip away

D

Every minute every single day

Em

D/F#

C

The memories make it easy to break a heart

D

C

But forgetting, forgetting is the hardest part

[Verse 3:]

C

It s time to pull myself together

D

And put these pieces back wherever

G

D/F#

C

D

Maybe one day I ll find love again, again

[Chorus:]

C

There s no getting over you

D

I tried to sugarcoat the truth

Em

D/F#

C

A million times but I m still torn apart

C

Every kiss that I let slip away

D

Every minute every single day

Em

D/F#

C

The memories make it easy to break a heart

D

C

But forgetting, forgetting is the hardest part
