(Do first stanza chords)
Remember the days I was bleeding for you
Tasted my tears all you drowned into
Hasn t this happened again and again
Feeling is broken so let s not pretend

Should we let this come to an end?
Should we let this come to an end?

Needing your love and the touch of your face
I know what you re feeling that angel face
Is this the sea of love I m drownin
I can t breathe there s no one to save me but me
Spinning around in circles
Passion for joy I bleed
Questions arise with the answers and then

I ll never know I m just goin insane
Hasn t this happened again and again
Feeling is broken so let s not pretend
Should we let this come to an end?
Should we let this come to an end?
Needing your love and the touch of your face
I know what you re feeling that angel face
Is this the sea of love I m drownin
I can t breathe
