Snows They Melt The Soonest Karan Casey [Intro] \mathbf{Em} Αm [Verse] The snows, they melt the soonest, when the winds begin to sing The corn, it ripens fastest as the frosts are settling in And when a young man tells me that my face he ll soon forget Dm Before we part, I ll wage a bet, he ll be fain to follow it yet [Verse] Am Em Am The snows, they melt the soonest, when the winds begin to sing The swallow flies without a thought, as long as it is spring When springtime goes and winter blows, my lad, and you ll be fain With all your pride to follow me, across the stormy main [Verse] Am Em The snows, they melt the soonest, when the winds begin to sing The bee that flew in summertime, in winter it will not sting Seen a woman s anger melt, between the night and morn DmIt s surely not a harder thing to melt a woman s scorn [Verse] Em So, never bid me farewell, for no farewell I ll receive You will lie with me, my love, and kiss and take your leave I ll wait here til the woodcock calls, and the marten takes its wing

For the snows, they melt the soonest, when the winds begin to sing
