[Verse 1]

G

Well i dont have as many friends because

D

I m not as pretty as i was

Em

C

I ve kicked myself at times because I ve lied

G

So i will have to learn to stand my ground

D

I ll tell them i wont be around

Em

C

I ll move on over to my town and hide

[Chorus]

G

And you be the captain

D

And I ll be no one

Em

C

And you can carry me away if you want to

G

And you can lay low

D

Just like your father

Em

C

And if i tread upon your feet you just say so

G

Cause your the captain, I am no one

C

I tend to feel as though I owe one to you

G D Em C

To you

[Verse 2]

G

Well i have handed all my efforts in

D

I ve searched here for my second wind

Em

C

Is there somewhere here to let me in I ask

G

So I slammed the doors they slammed at me

D

I found the place I m meant to be

Em

C

I figured out my destiny at last

[Chorus]

G

And you be the captain

D

And I ll be no one

Em

C

And you can carry me away if you want to

G

And you can lay low

D

Just like your father

Em

C

And if i tread upon your feet you just say so

G

Cause your the captain, I am no one

C

I tend to feel as though I owe one to you

G D Em C

To you

[Bridge]
