[CHORUS]

I sold my [G] last hard bible just to pay my bills
I called my mother to re[D]serve me in her will
And the [G] pay I'm getting every Thursday night
Well it [C] just don't seem enough
Well [G] money can buy me a hell of a lot
But it [D] sure won't buy me [G] love

Well I bought me a [G] car
And I bought me a road train
The car won't [C] go
The train's too [G] slow
So I found me a mansion
On the highest hillside
Bigger than this [F] town
But [D] it don't feel like [G] home

[repeat CHORUS]

Well I spent my [G] cash
On a brand new heartache
I spent my [C] time
Trying to make it [G] back
He took my heart
And he took my savings
He took the [F] train
And [D] left me on the [G] tracks

[repeat CHORUS]
