Intro: [C] [D] [G]

[G] Do you remember when I was a [C] baby
Did I [G] cry, did I [D] cry
I [C] only re[D]member the [G] days I was [C] laughing
When [G] you sang me sweet lulla[D]bies
When you sang me sweet bye and [G] bye

[G] Sometimes I wonder if you were an [C] angel
Would you [G] fly, would you [D] fly
Or [C] would you just [D] hover right [G] here by my [C] side
[G] Keeping me warm and [D] dry
Keeping me safe by your [G] side

[Em] Mother [C] Mother won t [G] fall from [D] grace
[Em] Light a [C] room with the [G] lines on your [D] face
And if [G] you were a [C] river run [G] dry [D]
Well [C] I d sing you [D] sweet bye and [G] bye

[G] All of the birds that land on my [C] window
Sing your [G] name, sing your [D] name
When [C] all of the [D] time I am [G] crying a [C] gain
About [G] how much the sky likes to [D] rain
When I should be singing your [G] name

[Em] Mother [C] Mother won t [G] fall from [D] grace
[Em] Light a [C] room with the [G] lines on your [D] face
And if [G] you were a [C] river run [G] dry [D]
Well [C] I d sing you [D] sweet bye and [G] bye

[C][D][G][C] . . . [C][D][G]

And [Em] all of the [C] flowers by the [G] side of the [D] road
They [Em] whisper your [C] name while they [G] grow [D]
And if [G] you were a [C] river run [G] dry [D]
Well [C] I d sing you [D] sweet bye and [G] bye
And if [G] you were a [C] river run [G] dry [D]
Well [C] I d sing you [D] sweet bye and [G] bye
