

Cellophane
Kashmir

G C G
There she goes in her raincoat
Am Em Bm
bringing out all the darkest of skies

G C G
And I know that I can walk alone
Am Em Bm
cause the murder is for real in her eyes

D
Cellophane

Am7 D
is doing us part, so cry in vain
C
cause I m dodging your darts
D
throwing stains
C Em C
and the photos that you would love to keep

G C
There s a little bit of death
G Am Em Bm
in every mad goodbye we say
G C G
But thank God, there s still morning air
Am Em Bm
in her wake showing up the next day

D
Cellophane

C D
I ll leave the good things and go insane

C
Hang to dry from a string
Am
Who s to blame?

C Em C
As I can recall there were two of us

Em G
Oh, what a waste, there goes everything

Em G
This is not how it should ve been

C Am F
This is not where we should ve been

Em D
This is not the end

Am Em D
I ll leave the good things and go insane

Am C
Hang to dry from a string

Am
and who s to blame?
