

Cellophane

Kashmir

G C G
There she goes in her raincoat
 Am Em Bm
bringing out all the darkest of skies

G C G
And I know that I can walk alone
 Am Em Bm
cause the murder is for real in her eyes

D Cellophane

Am7 D
is doing us part, so cry in vain
 C
cause I m dodging your darts
 D throwing stains
 C Em C
and the photos that you would love to keep

G C
There s a little bit of death
 G Am Em Bm
in every mad goodbye we say
 G C G
But thank God, there s still morning air
 Am Em Bm
in her wake showing up the next day

D Cellophane

C D
I ll leave the good things and go insane

C
Hang to dry from a string

Am
Who s to blame?

C Em C
As I can recall there were two of us

Em G
Oh, what a waste, there goes everything

Em G
This is not how it should ve been

C Am F
This is not where we should ve been

Em D
This is not the end

Am G G Am Em Bm D G D Em Bm D

D Cellophane

Am Em D
I ll leave the good things and go insane

Am C
Hang to dry from a string

Am
and who s to blame?

C Em Em C G
As I can recall there were two of us