02. SURFING THE WARM INDUSTRY 04.27

Bb

I wanna run from the apathy

from the questioning tongues

G

and eyes that just won't come off

Bb

and get a job in an industry

where a smile's not required

and the complaints are always the same

Bb

cause baby you must be so fed up with a boy that keeps telling you

how much good he's gonna do

Bb

when all that is happening round here is happening in here and nothing gets out there

except for the truth

Em H

it's up to you

C

cause I'm absolutely numb

Em

it's up to you

Bb

I've been adrift on the silver surf

and I ve paddled ahead of the fear

G

that I d fall behind

Bb

I took drinks from the glitter smurfs and their company dads who never

stood by in the crying

Bb

cause no one does and nobody ever will there is only space for one and surely he gets killed

when the engine seizes up

Bb

you might call it existential crisis

I simply call it the bravery

of emptiness

Em H

it s up to you
