I ll take the long way home tonight
Please don t wait up I ll be alright
Going about my usual day, I had no idea
Cupid and friends had other plans for me, now i see
And so, first, before this day is through I ve got some things I ve gotta do
Well
I ll be laughing with the moon in sea of delight and thanking every little bitty star in sight
When I, take the long way home tonight
Well I ll be winking to the wise owl who always knew
And babbling with the brook about my love for you
When I, take the long way home tonight, tonight
When I, take the long way home tonight
