Cupid and friends had other plans for me, now i see

And so, first, before this day is through I ve got some things I ve gotta do Well

I ll be laughing with the moon in sea of delight and thanking every little bitty star in sight

When I, take the long way home tonight

Well I ll be winking to the wise owl who always knew

And babbling with the brook about my love for you

When I, take the long way home tonight, tonight

When I, take the long way home tonight
