I gave you everything

You did not let me in

My words caught in between

Knowing what was good for me

What's the difference between

Living free and hurting me

This has been quite challenging

But now I'm thinking differently

Too proud to ask for help

That makes it difficult

Should I just follow suit? Try and figure out myself?

Or should I concentrate

Concentrate on myself?

Or will that leave me here inside my low self-obsessed life?

Why is it like I'm changing (something) life

(Something) go get high

Well no, you like me

You kinda like me

(Something) a girl now do you love me?

Well I'm just a girl

And that's not enough for me
