

Skeleton Song

Kate Nash

(intro) A F#m E

A

Skeleton you are my friend

F#m E

But you are made of bone

(continues in a similar vein until the chorus)

(chorus) (chord changes are oddly timed here)

A

And I should have known

F#m E D

That it wouldn't be long until you've

F#m E D A

Got me standing in an awkward position with

F# E D A

Unwanted attention and a need for explanation and it's

F# E D A

Not that I'm letting go of you

F# E D A

But I dunno what to do

(verse)

(chorus)

(bridge) (strum faster)

Dm

And some

Am

Times

Dm

At at at at at at at night

(and so on)

(when it decelerates, start playing an A major chord instead, then slow down into the verse)

...And smash...

A F# E

But skeleton, you are my friend...
