

Manhattan From The Sky

Kate Voegele

Intro 4x: G Am7

G Am7 G Am7
Baby, whatcha doing today
G Am7
What are you doing later?
G Am7
I don't know my way through a maze
G Am7 Am
Of gray skyscrapers
G Am7 G Am7
But I'm willing to learn

G Am7 G Am7
If you want me to, I'll stay just where I am
G Am7 G Am7 Am
But I promise just to follow when I land
G D
You can take my word for that

C G Am
You are my Manhattan from the sky
C G D Em
You look so neat and tidy when I'm way up high
C G Bm Em
But I know your streets are lined with a fine mess inside
C D G Am7 G Am7
I wanna come down and walk around your mind

G Am7 G Am7
Daisies, once upon an old daydream
G Am7
That's what you gave me
G Am7 G Am7 Am
Out on the corner of Broadway and 48th street
G Am7 G Am7
On a rainy afternoon

G Am7 G Am7
Well I could start discovering your world
G Am7 G Am7 Am
And I would make a damn good city girl
G D
Things would start to bloom, I'm sure

C G Am
You are my Manhattan from the sky

I wanna come down and walk around your mind

G
I know you want me to see; don t lie to me
C
So why you gotta go be so shy to me?
G
I ain t buying the false anxiety
C (D)
Let your fortress fold

G
What is it gonna take to get you there?
C
If fear was money, you d be a millionaire
G
All alone in a leather swivel chair
C (D)
Counting stacks of gold
