Acordesweb.com

Back Roads Kate Wolf Minstrel71@yahoo.com (Stephen Mabry) Sep.03, 2001 Did not find a listing for this, so I sat down and figured it out. This is also one of my favorite Kate Wolf songs. Back Roads By: Kate Wolf From:1976 Album..Back Roads No capo: Key of G Verse 1 Am7 D7 G D I ll take the backroads home through the open country side. C G Bm D7 Am Letting things slip by..... drawn out time...I ll Em BmC take the long way home on the backroads of this life Am7 D7 G С ..taking time to see what goes by.

Chorus

Bdim А A7 D E Coming and going, there s no dividing line. What you re в C D7 G Em headed for, someone s left behind....And the shortest road C Am7 D7 Bm G ain t always the best. Sometimes let a backroad take you home

Verse 2

Am7 G D D7 A back road is so easy, it just rambles on and on. D7 Am Bm C G Take it or leave it,....as rolls along. C Em BmDrifts through things it cannot change, and doesn t Am7 D7 C G even try. Wouldn t that be something for you and I.

Chorus

BdimAA7DEComing and going, there s no dividing line. What you reBCD7GEmheaded for, someone s left behind....And the shortest road

BmCAm7D7Gain t always the best. Sometimes let a backroad take you homeVerse 3

G Am7 D7 D Anyplace you re bound, you ll get there someday. Am Bm С D7 G You re the one who chooses...what you see along the way. Bm C Am7 Em And when the heartaches seem too much for you to bear. D7 G C There s a back road winding everywhere.

Chorus

Bdim A7 D Е Α Coming and going, there s no dividing line. What you re в С D7 G Em headed for, someone s left behind....And the shortest road С D7 G Bm Am7 ain t always the best. Sometimes let a backroad take you home

Define:Bdim E--4--B--3--G--4--D--3--A--x--E--x--Comments, corrections, additions for fingerstyle please E-mail me at Minstrel71@yahoo.com