Title: Jack And Jill

Lyrics to Jack And Jill : capo 4

Dm7 A

She wore that dress like it was a Saturday

E. G

Pretty as a summer rose picked in the morning

Dm7. A

And he held her hand like it was a mystery

E

One he couldn't quite believe

G. Fm

Just walking with him

Bm. A

They were high up on a hill

E. G

Something to say, and daylight to kill

Fm. Bm. A. Bm

Time slipped away, the way that it will

Dm7

Around and around

A

Dancing around the question

E

Flip a coin and watch it go down

G

Into the wishing will

Dm7. A

Two steps unset there goes another day,

E

Another chance to give away the secrets

G

To keep to themselves.

Repeat chorus

Bm. Fm

Darkness falls without a sound

Bm. Fm

They come tumbling down,

A. E. A. G
Tumbling after, tumbling after

She wore that dress like it was a Saturday

Pretty as a summer rose picked in the morning

And he held her hand like it was a mystery

One he couldn't quite believe

Just walking with him

They were high up on a hill

Something to say, and daylight to kill

Time ticked away, the way that it will
