Intro: Am-Asus2 (x3)

Verse 1:
Em
   I throw myself into the rain
                        Am
as we run down this old train tracks again
Em
   The moon is naked in the sky,
                        Am
so maybe you and I could fly or pretend

Refrain 1:
F   G
   As the stars fall from grace
F   G
   and light your glowing face

Chorus:
     F   G   Am   C
I m teaching myself to dream
     F   G   Am   C
I m holding my breath to scream
     F   G
I m teachin myself to

```
    F                       G
believe in the things I don t understand
    F               G
I don t even know if they re true
F               G           C
    that s what dreamers do

Verse 2:
Em
    I can t say what day it is or year
                                Am
but thou shalt have no fear for I know your name
Em
    You can t believe what I did
                          Am
and maybe I m just a kid but then we re both the same

Refrain 2:
F                           G
    I watch the hours through the glass
F                               G
    and know the time will finally pass

Chorus 2:
     F           G           Am     C
I m teaching myself to dream
     F               G           Am  C
I m learning what love can be
       F           G
I m teaching myself to
    F                       G
believe in the things I don t understand
    F                       G
I don t even know if they re true
F               G           C
    That s what dreamers do

Bridge:
Dm                              F
    Stapled eyes can t open until waking
Bb                                      Dm
    and all your lies will be your undertaking

Interlude: F-G-Am-C (x2) F-G

F                       G
    I let my mind dance and flow
F                       G
    we ll make magic and I ll know
```

Em/C                 F
    as the lilacs slowly grow
E
all my dreams are true

(repeat chorus)
