[Verse]

The rain poured down from the grey sky above

Hey ho, the rain pissed down

But the devil he went hasty

And steady running fast

Hey ho, oh this could never last

And then he saw my home through

The branches and the leaves

Hey ho, lay hidden by the trees

Inside my darling loved one

And children oh so sweet

Hey ho, my children oh so sweet

[Chorus]

Lord knows you re only human

You were tired and you wanted to go home

Pay me the soul of your one true love

Or you will never see your children again

[Chorus/Outro]

Oh Lord knows you re only human

You were tired and you wanted to go home

Pay me the soul of your one true love

Or you will never see your children again

Save my soul!
