Kayleigh Goldsworthy- Tennessee

Well, there s a silence when you re looking at me

And I wish I could go back to sleep

But in this moment you won t look beyond the brown

Behind the black

Wide abyss of my mind and I m turning back

Into the girl I always wanted me to be

Bathed in my sympathy, I m begging to be clean

I ll send a postcard as I try to find my way

My ghost behind me, I know that I ll make it through

And be okkkkkkkk

I ll be okkkkkkk

There s a lot that s up ahead

And I ll be catching it the first thing in the morning

I m on my way

Towards a southern town beneath the stars

I ll wander every night

Tennessee, you ve been the nicest thing to me

Oh, there s a siren that is deafening

As I try to uncover where I ve been

With everybody second guessing all the moves
