Am                    G                    C                    F
This feels right and I m letting it
Am                    G                    F
but now I know just what to do
Am                    G                    C                    F
Tire of me if you will my dear
F                    G                    C
but I will not tire of you

Am                    G                    C                    F
This is the world as I see it now
Am                    G                    F
Turns out that nothing is fair
Am                    G                    C                    F
You can leave me if you wish my love
F                    G                    C                    C/B
but I m not going anywhere

Am, G, C, F
G

C                    G                    C                    F
Please do not hurt me love I am a fragile one
C                    F                    G
and you are the white in my eyes
C                    G                    C                    F
Please do not break my heart, I think it s had enough
C                    F                    G
pain to last the rest of my life

Am, G, C, F

Am                    G                    C                    F
With endless distraction you worry me
Am                    G                    F
and I m trying to figure out how
Am                    G                    C                    F
you don t have to make any promises, love
F                    G                    C
I m afraid I might die for you now
