[Verse]

My [Edim7]Baby [Ebdim7]wrote me a [Cdim7]letter [C#dim7]
She didn t[Edim7]call me [Ebdim7]on the [Cdim7]phone [C#dim7] [Edim7]Five little [Edim7]words is [Cdim7]all she [C#dim7]wrote
[A]See ya [E]later I m [A]gone [A][E]

[Verse]

She had no explanation
About why she had to go
Well I can t take a joke
But I can take a hint
She don t love me no more

[Chorus]

But if [D7]nobody [Db7]loves you And you [F#m]feel like dust on an [bm]empty [B7]shelf just re[A]member, [E]You can love your[A]self

[Verse]

My mother says she loves me
But you know she could be jivin too
And everybody s always criticizing everything that I do

[Verse]

I work 9 to 5, do the best I can try to plese the boss
I bought a big ol house and a brand new car and then he laid me off

[Chorus]

[Verse]

Everytime I meet a lady
I wanna try to get to know Either I m too small or she s too tall
she s rich and I m po

[Verse]

So I called my old friend Hazel Mae asked her out for a little date
She said, "I m married now and I got three little kids, boy ya just a little too late."

CHORUS twice
("Nice to meet me...")
