(This song is actually piano)

F Dm

F

If I could wrap my hand around,
why you won't hear me now,

Dm

You tend to break my heart.

F

Keep my eyes closed long enough, or maybe just wake up

Bb

Without us so far apart

Dm

Everytime I pick you up,

Gm

you find a way to fall

Dm

don't you know a conversation

C

doesn't mean ignore me.

F

Dm

Like a father livin' as a ghost,

F

and like a lover,

Bb

leaving when you need the most

Gm

And like the son you love,

C

F

but can t quite reach anymore.

F

If I could figure out what you want from me,

Dm

I m always open,
you can come on in.

F

Give you room to breath in hope, that part of you that s so cold,

Bb

we ll melt, and we can be friends again.

Dm

Gm

Everytime I feel I m getting closer,
things get worse,

Dm

But I know how this story goes

C

because you re not the first.

F

Dm

You re like a father living as a ghost,

F

you re like a lover,

Bb

leavin when you need the most

Gm

And like the son you love,

C

F

but can t quite reach anymore.

Dm

And even though your thinkin you don t

Gm

need me, and your missin out on

Dm

C

Bb

everything you should kn00ooAaw.

F

Like a daughter, I pray,

Dm

Like a lover, I wait,

C

Bb

Like a mother I ll be here when you faaaall.
