Verse 1

This hurt so bad when I lied to you about the way, I feel you make smile still
This cripples me so cause I see your face
I see you every place I can t erase

Chorus

I ve got to let you go, so hard to say it though
I d rather find something instead
That we could laugh about, ignore the truth somehow
For just one more night in your bed

Verse 2

If you find somebody to fill my seat
I hope she wont last, I hope she wont last
And if you care for her, I hope I never see
She could of been me, if I didn t leave

Chorus

I ve got to let you go, so hard to say it though
I d rather find something instead
That we could laugh about, ignore the truth somehow
For just one more night in your bed

Bridge

Maybe if I just took off
Maybe could I just leave town
If I m hone before you re hear
These tears will never be found

Verse 3

You look so sad cause you can t help me
Cause I need to be, alone just me
I d be a fool to drag you on a string you re my everything, I need nothing

Ending

I ve got to let you go, so hard to say it though

I d rather find something instead
That we can laugh about, ignore the truth somehow
For just one more night in your bed x2
