

Spirit Of A Storm
Kenny Chesney

INTRO E A E A

There s a spirit of a storm in my soul,
A restlessness that I can t seem to tame,
The thunder and lightning follow everywhere I go,
There s a spirit of a storm in my soul

There s a hurricane that s raging through my blood
And I can t find a way to calm the sea,
Maybe I ll find someday the waters aren t so rough,
But right now they ve got the best of me

And oo-oh it s been a long, long time,
Since I had real peace of mind
So I m just gonna sit right here in this old chair
Until this storm rolls by

And oo-oh maybe it s just the way I am
Maybe I won t ever change
So I m just gonna sit right here in this old chair
And just soak up the rain

(INSTRUMENTAL)

There s a spirit of a storm in my soul

And every time I think it s gone away

A B E A

The dark clouds gather, that old wind begins to blow
