And I wouldn't have a heart and I wouldn't need a soul

Even now still seems like a dream

But I know I can't be dreamin' cause as I lay down each night

The pains so great that it won't let me sleep

Chorus:

It's times like these

I wish I were the tin man

You could hurt me all you wanted

I'd never even know

Well...I'd give anything just to be the tin man

And I wouldn't have a heart and I wouldn't miss you so
