

Someone Elses Story

Kerry Ellis

This is a beautiful Broadway song. For the guitarists, C/E, G/B, F/A, just ignore the second letter(that s for the bass part) after the first chord. Example for C/E, just play the C chord

I could be

B C#

In someone else's story

F# Ebm

In someone else's life

Ab Ab/C C#

And he could be in mine

F# B C#

I don't see A reason to be lonely

F# Ebm

I should take my chances

Ab Ab/C C#

Further down the line

C#/F

And if

F# F#7 B

That girl I knew should ask my advice

Ebm Ebm/Db

Oh I wouldn't hesitate

Ab/C F#

She needn't ask me twice

B/D# C#/F F#

Go now! I'd tell her that for free

B C# F#, Ebm

Trouble is, the girl is me

B C# F#

The story is, the girl is me
