Didn t have a clue what we were doing or where we would end up.
Living off of nickels and dimes in our young reckless love.
We didn t ever think that time would ever come to an end.
Now if i could, you know i d run.

Back to wonderland.
Where it all began.
Everything was so simple then, living life like our last weekend.
Wish i could find my way back to wonderland.
