[Verse 1]

Gm

There was a knockin at my door

Cm Gm

It s the dreaded landlord

Cm Gm

He wants his rent and wants it now

Dm Gm

And he is careless how

Eb Bb

He left us in a vacant daze

Cm Dm Cm

Askin how we got here

Gm Dm

And we retired to slumber

Am Gm

But the glasses never were rinsed

[Verse 2]

Gm

There was a tapping on my back

Cm Gm

It s the dreaded foreman

Cm Gm

I think I see a smile

Dm Gm

Through his teeth and his cigar
He put my hands to working
Said they d otherwise do nothing
And I made a thousand things today
I m sure I ll never use

[Verse 3]

There was a ringing of my bell
I picked it up to answer
They said they were my comrade
But they couldn t say my name +
So I asked about the sun and moon
And what their thoughts on time were
They hung it up in madness
And went on to punch the clock

[Chorus]

And somewhere there s a sound of someone singing
I got an invitation once to liberty
They had a mischief brew, but no goblets were used
Besting rum or porter
tis a liquor never brewed.

Never brewed!

[Bridge]

[Verse 4]

Gm

There was a rapping at my door

Cm Gm

It s the dreaded policeman

Cm Gm

He had a ticket to enter

Dm Gm

Signed by fools and stamped with laws

Eb Eb

He questioned me on politics

Cm Dm Cm

Scorned my generation

Gm Dm

For not respecting elders

Am Gm

And the land s authority

[Verse 5]

Gm

So when the landlord came to knock

Cm Gm

I said,
