

Long Line Of Losers

Kevin Fowler

I think this is right, it sounds good to me

Capo on 1

B7 is played - in relation to the capo

-

2

1

2

-

E

Granddaddy was Irish Cherokee

A

Ran moonshine from here to Tennessee

E

B7

Spent half his life in the Montgomery county jail

E

Grandma she got drunk and left

A

All her kids on her mommas front steps

E

B7

E

Nobodys heard from her since she high tailed

E

I come from a long line of losers

A

Half outlaw half boozers

E

B7

I was born with a shot glass in my hand

E

Im part hippy a little redneck

A

Im always a suspect

E

B7

E

My bloodline made me who I am

E

Daddy never finished school but

A

He shot one mean game of pool

E

B7

Took a bullet for stealing cars down in Birmingham

E
Momma always went to church
A
We soon found out what her reasons were
E B7 E
She got caught at the local motel with the preacher man

E
I come from a long line of losers
A
Half outlaw half boozers
E B7
I was born with a shot glass in my hand
E
Im part hippy a little redneck
A
Im always a suspect
E B7 E
My bloodline made me who I am

Oh yeah

E
I come from a long line of losers
A
Half outlaw half boozers
E B7
I was born with a shot glass in my hand
E
Im part hippy a little redneck
A
Im always a suspect
E B7 E
My bloodline made me who I am

E
I come from a long line of losers