RE

I know it sounds wrong

RE7

And I don't have the face

DO

But lately everything

SOL

Is falling into place

RE

I know it sounds dumb

RE7

But it ain't no disgrace

DO

It just feels so damn good

SOL

To be out of the race

RE

I know it sounds strange

RE7

To really feel free

DO

But how can you complain

SOL

If it's the way it's meant to be

You know I got a pop heart

What else can I say?

I love a simple tune

That anyone can play

See this little girl

She's 7 years old (4 in the photo)

You listen to her sing

And you listen to her soul

So what is the need

For all (of) us as a race

So why, oh! all the greed

If it's gone in a day

And everything's falling into place...

(Everything is, everything is)

I know it sounds wrong...
