I can't begin to think of anything that could help
But the Weed is guaranteed indeed jus what I need

Please save a kid that needs some help and
I can't see ahead of me so I move in stealth
Hide and seek within a dream I seem to glide above my horror
Though I feel I ll never be complete inside the dark I borrow
To proceed and remain intact my mental is so unstable
And they talk and judge a man they have no clue of what I m capable Til I show a side of me no one had thought could be within

G

Am

I ve achieved a bigger thing no cash or check could be more blessed and if You would ve seen the things I ve seen in my slumber you d be Shook stay awake no need to run your fate will follow
You should know not for the faint at heart this world understands no cowar
It s a goal a simple code I stay on the grind to the 25th hour
And I know the fight in me is somewhere hiding deep within

G                                Am
I told you, no. I ll never let you drag me down to hell, no
