

Blue Jeans And A Rosary
Kid Rock

(Verse 1)

C

All my life I ve been searchin , all my life I ve been uncertain

F

I been abandoned and left alone, at fifteen I had to leave home

C

G

The black sheep, the bad seed, at a roadside bar in Tennessee

Dm

C

G

I met an angel who rescued me, she rescued me...

Chorus

F

She wore blue jeans and a rosary, believed in God and believed in me

C

All her friends think she s a little crazy

F

She wears a smile, heart on her sleeve, don t give a damn what the world thinks of me

C

G

Dm

F

She tells me it s all good, she s happy with a bad seed, happy to be

C (bend D 1/2 step, slide back to C, for main lick) misunderstood.

(Verse 2)

C

(....away the pain C,G,F,E,C bass)

Two packs and a pint a day, to hide the shame, and wash away the pain

C

(C,D,E bass)

Aww the pain

F

Every road was a dead-end street, runnin from the law, and runnin on empty

C

You couldn't shake the marks that were left on me, At a roadside bar in TN

G

Dm

C

G

I met an angel who rescued me, she rescued me...

(Chorus)

Solo: Bb F C (2x) D G

F (no chord)

She wore blue jeans and a rosary, believed in God and believed in me

C

All her friends think she's a little crazy

F

She wears a smile, heart on her sleeve, don't give a damn what the world

C

thinks of me

G

F

F

She tells me it's all good, she's happy with a bad seed, happy to be

C misunderstood.