Collide
Kid Rock
[Verse 1]
 You re no angel, I m no saint, if we were
We wouldn t be in this place tonight
Lost and lonely, scared and confused
We both have a past, nothing to lose, tonight

We both got scars from the hell we been thru
Bm
 Somebody s gotta win, somebody s gotta lose
[Chorus]
So let s roll the dice, one more time
Take a chance on love again tonight
Risk it all, lay it on the line
 Let the skeletons fight for life
Tonight, hold on tight, as we collide

[Verse 2]
Reconnected, feelin no pain
Seeking shelter like a spark in the rain, tonight (ooh yeah)
Worn and weathered, scared to go home
We re here together, but still all alone, tonight (uh uh yeah)
And there s no need to lie, we ve both been abused
The love and the pain, the cocaine and booze, now
 Most people don t, but some people do
