Enough For You
Kids in Glass Houses
In Gold Blood [Bonus]

Tabbed by: Kattipus
Been working on this one for a while. Sorry if you think the lyrics are inaccurate, I had to interpret them myself!

Standard Tuning

(synth Intro: Bbm, Bbm, G#, G#, then Bbm, F#, G#, G#,)
[Guitar comes in at first G bar]

Verse one
```
          C#                             Bbm                 F#
All the nights that we played slowing down every day
                   G#
When we re flying,
                 G#
and colliding
          C#                        Bbm                     F#

let me drown in the flames as the town gives me names
             G#
all the dying,
          G#
and conniving,
```

Prechorus
F#                              G#
Woah, you keep me up,
                             Bbm                          C#
You know you ve got me where you want me, darling
F#                            G#
Woah you ve got my trust
                 Bbm                      G#
And no, you never let me down

cos you say

C#                              G#                Bbm                             F#
This will never be enough for you
          C#                                    G#                   Bbm
F#
but we try and we try and we try to see it through
```

[Synth: Bbm, F#, G#, G# (x2)]

Verse Two
```
            C#          Bbm               F#
In  the fire escape of the old english grace
            G#
You were mine,
            G#
you were mine,
          Bbm                                       F#
As we come face to face with the courage we chased
            G#
down the line,
        G#
we re defying
```

    F#                          G#
but whoa, your lips are dust,
                        Bbm                         C#
you know you ve got me where you want me darling and
F#                          G#
woah, I miss your touch,
                  Bbm               G#
the way you always let me down and I ll say
```

C#                          G#                Bbm                              F#
This will never be enough for you
            C#                                  G#              Bbm
F#
```

```
C#                          G#                Bbm
F#
This will never be enough for you (no it never, no it never)
C#                          G#                Bbm
F#
Yeah we lie and we lie and we lie until it s true (yeah we re lying, yeah we re lying)

Bbm~

Bb  Fm          G#
You re not my darling
Bb   G# F                G#
Woaaah, you re not my darling
Bbm                              G#
Woaaah, you re not my darling
Bbm          C#   F# G#
Woaaah, you re not my darling
```

C#~
This will never be enough for you

   G#
Take my heart and my soul, everything that I hold on to

C#   G#   Bbm   F#
Faith will never be enough for you
         C#   G#   Bbm
Take my heart and my soul, everything that I hold on to,
woah
         C#   G#
And we try yeah we try and we try and we try
    Bbm   F#
We try and we try yeah we try,

         C#   G#   Bbm
and we try and we try and we try to see it...
F#   Bbm~
