Acoustic Version as played by Steve Gibson at Mojo s 9th July 2008. I m not sure about the lyrics. Please feel free to send corrections.

Am        C        G        D (4x)

Am        C                    G        D
you met me when i was high, higher than the other guys

Am                    C                    G                    D
theres always something that you wanted to be, everybody wanted to be me

Am        C        G        D

Am                    C                    G                    D
smooth like silk, quiet like darkness, shining with light n standing on sparkles

Am                    C                    G                    D
some get burned and some shine, please pour me another wine

Am                    C        G        D
I m not the guy you perceive, you tell me that Im drinking too much

Am                    C        G        D
you know I can never believe, you tell me that I m drinking too much

Am                    C        G        D
go on pack your bags n leave, you tell me that I m drinking too much

Am                    C        G        D
some things I, I cannot, I can see though, hey n you tell me that I m drinking too much yeh

Am            C            G            D (2x)

Am                            C            G            D
you met me when I was dancing, I was out on the floor n just trancin

Am                            C            G            D
all the girls like funny guys, somethings changin and I dont know why

Am                            C            G            D

Am                            C            G            D
everything I touch turns to shit, but you were the exception to it

Am                            C            G                            D
I m not crazy just a little bit touched, An you tell me that I m drinking too much yeh

Am                            C            G            D
I m not the guy you perceive, you tell me that Im drinking too much

Am                            C            G            D
you know I can never believe, you tell me that I m drinking too much

Am                            C            G            D
go on pack your bags n leave, you tell me that I m drinking too much

Am                            C            G            D
some things I, I cannot, I can see though, hey you tell me that I m drinking too much yeh

Am                            C            G            D
I get it, I here it all the time, you tell me that I m drinking too much yep

Am                            C            G                            D
yeh I cant help me, I love a my wine, he, you tell me that I m drinking too much

Am                            C            G                            D
you know I even get it from my friends, you tell me that I m drinking too much

Am                            C            G            D                                            Am dont you think I know it myself, you tell me that I m drinking too much yehhhhhhhhhh
