The Hardest Lesson
Kim Fransson

Tabbed for Standard Tuning
Tabbed by Jeppe

Songwriters: D. Child, A. Carlsson, K. Fransson, A. Bagge

BPM: 118

Verse 1

C
I can see it in your eyes

D
You've lost the love you always wanted

It's hard to get on with your life

And kick the pain that keeps you haunted

But every heartbeat has a price

And every breath you take's been counted

Bm

So hush now

You know it's time to join the club now

You gotta to the best you can now

I'm telling you, you're not alone baby

Chorus

Where you're gonna go when your soul gets tired of running

How're you gonna turn it around when you're ready to crash and burn

What you gonna do with the pain that'll never stop hurtin'

Oh baby, love's the hardest lesson that your hearts never gonna learn

Verse 2

Just when you think you got it right

Somebody's taking you for granted
Adn though the facts are black and white
You can bet the truth is slanted
So hush now
It's time to join the human race now
There ain't nothing you can face now
I'm telling you, you will survive baby

Chorus

Where you're gonna go when your soul gets tired of running
How're you gonna turn it around when you're ready to crash and burn
What you gonna do with the pain that'll never stop hurtin'
Oh baby, love's the hardest lesson that your hearts never gonna learn
