THAT S A LIE (Kim Richey & Tim Krekel)

[Capo 3; each chord is two beats, or half a measure.]
[Em(9) is 024000 in this song; C(9) is x32030 in the intro, and x32033 in the chorus. In the second measure of the intro, the C(9) has an F# on the high E string; it s either x32032 or x30032.]
[It s pretty easy to play those low quarter notes that come right before most of the Em chords: just bend the 2nd fret on the low E string from an F# up to a G and back.]

But I won't take the blame
All women aren't the same
