

I Feel Like A Fading Light

Kim Taylor

Neither the lyrics nor the chords are very common, so I transcribed both.

Notice that she just plays 8th notes for the entire song; listen to a recording for the exact beats. You can also add a 7 chord during transitions if you want to make it sound even better (but, this is the novice version).

C#

F

You know I never seem to get it right

Ebm

C#

I feel like a fading light some days they, they don t come so easy.

C#

F

Truth. Truth it is the... strongest word,

Ebm

Truth is like... the smallest bird,

C#

I learned that some things you let fly.

C|

F

H| Why don t we just brave the storm,

O|

R|

Ebm

C#

U| What do we feel lonesome for?

S|

C#

F

Friend, I can never comprehend,

Ebm

I can t seem to find the end

C#

To all the paint to all these walls.

C|

F

H| Why don t we just brave the storm,

O|

R|

Ebm

C#

U| What do we feel lonesome for?

S|

(x2)

C| F
H| La. La la la la la, la la.
O|
R| Ebm C#
U| La la la la la, la la, la la la la laa.
S|

C# F
Hey, listen for the sudden calm,

Ebm
Wait along the eye of the wall

C#
Will heal the pain we caused.

F
Love you more than I can say,

Ebm
Love you better every day

C#
Is like a new day we can try.

C| F
H| Why don t we just brave the storm,
O|
R| Ebm C#
U| What do we feel lonesome for?
S|

C#
You know I,

F
Never seem to get it right,

Ebm
I feel like a fading light

C#
Some days, they don t come so easy.