

Better Weather
Kimya Dawson

...just G# and Eb...

G#      Eb      G#
There are my specs

G#                      Eb      G#
the ones I ve been looking for I threw them out my window ten years ago and now they re on my doorstep

G#
so you put one and one together C#
and there will be better weather

G#    Eb
and you know that it s forever now that he has custody

G#    C#
with his son up on his shoulders they are a sight to behold

cause the dad is twenty eight even though he looks seventeen so you ll never guess the woes that they have known cause they don t show and in a couple years they ve grown into a perfect family I m so proud my brother did so good with his kid I just wish that I could live with the fishes I love in their anemone but I m a turtle it wont work I ve gotta stay out in the current with my house upon my back so I can hide inside of me all together in the tank you always dreamed about escaping when you finally make a break for it you deserve to be free to be free

to be free
to be free

there are my spectacles the ones I ve been looking for
I threw them out my window ten years ago
and now they re on my doorstep that s how it happened the confusion at the store the shark never knew his father and the baby never knew his motherboard
