Better Weather Kimya Dawson

...just F and C...

F C F

There are my specs

т С т

the ones I ve been looking for I threw them out my window ten years ago and now they re on my doorstep

F

so you put one and one together

Bb

and there will be better weather and you know that it s forever now that he has custody

I

with his son up on his shoulders they are a sight to behold cause the dad is twenty eight even though he looks seventeen so you ll never guess the woes that they have known cause they don t show and in a couple years they ve grown into a perfect family I m so proud my brother did so good with his kid I just wish that I could live with the fishes I love in their anemone but I m a turtle it wont work I ve gotta stay out in the current with my house upon my back so I can hide inside of me all together in the tank you always dreamed about escaping when you finally make a break for it you deserve to be free to be free

to be free

to be free

there are my spectacles the ones I ve been looking for I threw them out my window ten years ago and now they re on my doorstep that s how it happened the confusion at the store the shark never knew his father and the baby never knew his motherboard
