

Give me all you got and I ll pull through

Love is my fuel

And I won't be losing that any time soon

Daddy's slowly wearing down
Boy jumps up to help him around
Another day
Momma's body's aching too
She's been so tired, but she pulls through
Another day

Don't waste your tears on what has come
Or what must be
Use your efforts toward a cause
And what you'll see
Is things are better
When you're stronger and happy

This life's not fair at all for him
But still he sacrifices on a whim
Another day
Keeps up a smile and peace of mind
Just hoping for a better time
Another day

Come on world
Throw another battle in my life
It hurts, but I've learned it makes me stronger
Come on world
Give me all you got and I'll pull through
Love is my fuel
And I won't be losing that any time soon
