

Dostoyevsky Gets Mugged Outside A Donut Shop In New Jersey
Kind of Like Spitting

Artist: Kind of Like Spitting

Song: Dostoyevsky Gets Mugged Outside a Donut Shop in New Jersey

Album: Old Moon in the Arms of the New

Tabber: Andrew Biles

Now this is very easy to play, it s just four chords all the way through. On the album version Ben s guitar is tuned slightly high, but there s a great live recording from the Fireside Bowl where he has his guitar in tune.

G Em
Our savior s fallen ill, and he won t get up

D Am
We ve cast away our stones, why won t he get up?

G Em
So unawake with you, you let me drive your car

D Am
You let me break your heart and still not want to give up

G Em D
So now the only time I get to see you smile

Am G
Is in the darkest rooms with the brownest tiles

Em D
And to hear you laugh is a sweet refrain

Am G
So sick with joy, I m the perfect boy

G, Em, D, Am

G Em
Our savior s fallen ill, but here s a souvenir

D Am
Another saint to pierce against your bedroom wall

G Em D
It says you can t give up and that you won t wake up

Am

Until you close your eyes and lay down

Chords:

G	Em	D	Am
-3--0---2--0----
-0--0---3--1----
-0--0---2--2----
-0--2---0--2----
-2--2-----0----
-3--0-----

any questions? andrewbiles@hotmail.com