Gmin

Seven times in seven days

I've sat and wished my life away

Dmin

I know the greyness comes and goes

Cmin

But the sun don't shine

And the snow don't snow

Gmin

There's Suzy-Ann with her tits and curls

Where mediocrity excels

Dmin

For those vicious boys and their boring girls

Cmin

You know it makes me sick but it's a bozo's world

Bb

G

Then there's always the cash

Ab

Selling yourself for some trash

Cmin

Smiling at people that you cannot stand

Bb

You're in demand

Cmin

Bb

Your fifteen minutes start now

Gmin

City banker looks are in

The heartless heart, the chinless chin

Dmin

And you'd spill your beans for just a pint of gin

Cmin

How you got so holy

And became so thin

Gmin

In Sunday papers every week

The silly words you love to speak

Dmin

The tacky photos and the phoney smiles

Cmin

Well it s a bozo s world And you re a bozo s child

Bb

G

Then there s always the cash

Ab

Selling yourself for some trash

Cmin

Smiling at people that you cannot stand

Bb

You re in demand

Cmin

Bb

Your fifteen minutes start now

G

Then there s always the fame!

Ab

Autographs now and again

Cmin

People who saw you on Blankety Blank

Bb

Or in the bank

Cmin

Bb

Your fifteen minutes start now
