G#min

Seven times in seven days

I ve sat and wished my life away

Ebmin

I know the greyness comes and goes

C#min

But the sun don t shine

And the snow don t snow

G#min

There s Suzy-Ann with her tits and curls

Where mediocrity excels

Ebmin

For those vicious boys and their boring girls

C#min

You know it makes me sick but it s a bozo s world

B

G#

Then there s always the cash

A

Selling yourself for some trash

C#min

Smiling at people that you cannot stand

You re in demand

C#min

B

Your fifteen minutes start now

G#min

City banker looks are in

The heartless heart, the chinless chin

Ebmin

And you d spill your beans for just a pint of gin

C#min

How you got so holy

And became so thin

G#min

In Sunday papers every week

The silly words you love to speak

Ebmin

The tacky photos and the phoney smiles

C#min

Well it s a bozo s world And you re a bozo s child

G#

Then there s always the cash

Selling yourself for some trash

C#min

Smiling at people that you cannot stand

You re in demand

C#min

Your fifteen minutes start now

G#

Then there s always the fame!

Autographs now and again

C#min

People who saw you on Blankety Blank

B

Or in the bank

C#min

B

Your fifteen minutes start now
