He said the time had come for him to take a holiday

B

And he says it s brilliant there

E

There s something in the air

B

And sunshine everywhere

F#

He s on the beach

B

I know he s changed somehow

E

He sends those postcards now

B

I m not sure where he is

F#

but he s out of reach

B

When he called me up one day

F#

And said that he was going away

G#m

I thought he meant a week in France

B

And not twelve thousand miles to Sydney Bay

F#

Still he had to take his chances

E

B

He said the time had come for him to make a move away

And he says it s brilliant there

There s something in the air

And sunshine everywhere

F#

He s on the beach

I know he s changed somehow

E

He writes those postcards now

He s on his own again

And sunshine everywhere

I know he s changed somehow

It s in his postcards now

D#

He s on his own again

There s something in the air

And sunshine everywhere

F#

He s on the beach

I know he s changed somehow

It s in his postcards now
