Acordesweb.com

St Swithens Day Kirsty MacColl

#-----# #This file is the author s own work and represents their interpretation of the ##song. You may only use this file for private study, scholarship, or research. # #-----# Transcribed by Craig Coventry (craigcov61@hotmail.com) 17 November 2001 (In memory of Kirsty) ST SWITHINS DAY by Kirsty MacColl (written by Billy Bragg) С G Thinking back now FCG I suppose you were just stating your views С G What was it all for FCG For the weather or the battle of Agincourt And the times that we all hoped would last Am F Like a train they have gone by so fast F C G And though we stood together at the edge of the platform C G We were not moved by them C G With my own hands FC G As I make love to your memory С G It s not the same F C G I miss the thunder I miss the rain \mathbf{F} G And the fact that you don t understand Am F Casts a shadow over this land С GCG But the sun still shines from behind it Thanks all the same But I just can t bring myself to answer your letters It s not your fault

But your honesty touches me like a fire

The polaroids that keep us together Will surely fade away Like the love that we spoke of forever On St. Swithins Day